

Blue Shield's vision network is one of the largest in the nation

Blue Shield of California members have access to the largest network of ophthalmologists, optometrists, and opticians nationwide. Including over 12,000+ in California.* Additionally, members have access to major retail chains like Target Optical and LensCrafters and wholesale warehouses like Costco and Sam's Club, with convenient

Number of providers

*Available through a contracted vision plan administrator. Provider count is based on March 2021 information

Broad network with deep discounts

16,300+

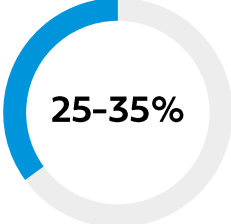

Vision access points in California

174,800+

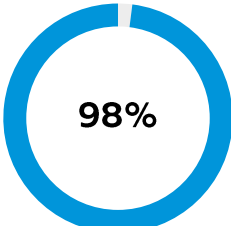

Vision access points nationwide

Best mix of medical and retail optical centers

Average discount

In-network utilization

National retail providers

Discounts

Members can access special offers on the EyeMed microsite to view a platform of additional savings, discounts, and rebates on vision care and services, such as:

- Frames and lenses
- Contacts
- Other vision services and items